Honokone, August 26th, 1885. THE announcement made by Renter of a new and threatening difficulty between Germany and Spain comes somewhat as a surprise upon us. It was only in March last that the Protocol relative to Song without Words "Traumgluck" the Sulu Archipelago was signed at Madrid by the Representatives of Great Briend to all disputes between the three Powers relative to trade in that archipelago, and few aware that Germany has actually effected placed on the stage in an effective manner. any appexations in these, waters, but Spain may have had some suspicion of her intention to do so, or she would hardly have troubled to enforce her claim looking back over some files of papers, we find, under date 8th May, a statement to the effect that the Anglo-German International Commission appointed to arrange terms of occupation of British and German colonies demands of justice might be met ! in the Pacific Ocean had concluded its la-Errs, and amongst other decisions of the Commission recorded, is the following: - "A preponderance of British trade is admitted in the Ellice, Gilbert, and other groups of islands, and of German trade in the Carolines and Marshall Islands." At that date the Spanish Government had intimated their intention to appoint a Gov or at Yap and under their administration. The German Government, however, may have declined to recognise a right which the Spaniards only thought of enforcing when they found another power meditating occupation of the group. The Marshall Islands are unclaimed by any Power, but in KEITH JOHNSTON'S Atlas and most English works the nominal to have been invented by some Northern penny sovereignty of Spain over the Carolines is a-liners, or porhaps has been dictated into their recognised. Germany will argue, no doubt, that there was no machinery of government, who are now well known. We hear the Imperial no means of preserving order, and that outrages on foreign traders in the islands either want unpunished or had to be redressed by China's birthday, on the 8th inst the men-of-war of the nationality to which the injured party belonged. Prince BISMARCK have reached us," says the N. C. HNGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDABIN PRONUNCIATION. n Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service his Work stands unrivalled. All the new ords which the Chinese have of late years been empelled to coin to express the numerous obects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, nd in science generally, which the rapid advance f foreign relationshas imposed upon them, are ere given in extenso. Each and every word is ully illustrated and explained, forming exercises or students of a most instructive nature. Both he Court and Pauti pronunciations are given he accents being carefully marked on the best rinciple hitherto attained. The typography isplays the success of an attempt to make the hinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of pace, achieving a clearness not previously ttained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characerized Chinese publications. To the illustrate the vast scope of the work ollowing facts are submitted for consideration :-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst his work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applieations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its payer enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-It comprises upwards of two thousand large A Large REDUCTION in PRICE is made to Purchasers of SIX or more Copies. Attention is invited to the following particulars on the subject of Local Delivery :-LOCAL DELIVERY .- No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Abardeen, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected (Postal Guide, par. 159).

The above Regulation is not new, but has been the invariable rule of the Post Office for many years. Considerable efforts have been made to secure its being generally understood. IGON, SINGAPORE, BATAVIA, CO. To prevent, however, if possible, any further disappointment in the matter, it will appear permanently on the Mail Lists issued twice every RT SAID, MEDITERRANEAN, AND day from the Daily Press Office.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover. Sent to - or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be seted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.
